

A CORDIAL WELCOME IN THE HANSEATIC CITY OF HAMBURG

We as Hamburgers love our city. It cannot be denied:

We are also a little proud of our Hamburg. That's why we want anyone visiting us to feel good and enjoy their stay. Whether you are planning a short weekend-trip to Hamburg, or plan to stay for a whole month in order to become a short-term Hanseate.

Whether you come here for a wedding, or for big-business. Whether you arrive alone, or with two, three, or for people, from New York or Munich.

Anyone coming here will get to know Hanseatic hospitality. You will notice that hospitality has a lot to do with friendship.

POESELDORF – OUR QUARTER

As anyone from Hamburg knows: Pöseldorf is a good address! Despite the proverbial Hanseatic understatement, one can tell that the somewhat introverted noblesse – a sense of “more than just appearances“ is very much at home here. One can find world-famous company names on the walls and doors of Pöseldorf, obviously very discreetly displayed! To name but a few: JIL SANDER and JOOP!

Pöseldorf is akin to a way of life; almost a Weltanschauung. Boutiques, Delicatessen, Fashion, Galleries – they are all here. And exclusive. The senses are awakened. Your eyes will get their money's worth.

Should you desire a little more of Hamburg – should you want to visit the Opera, the Thalia, the Jungfernstieg or the Neue Wall – just take the boat there – the dock is less than 3 minutes from here.

Float past weeping willows, which are centuries old and dip their branches into the water without looking as sad as the name would suggest. Past the stately villas, that are just as old. Gazing at the towers and spires of the city.

There is no better way to discover Hamburg! Here, you can do so with all your heart!
